MILITARY EXAMINATIONS.

Senator George P. McLean writes
The Bulletin:

"I have an appointment to make to the United States Military Academy at West Point in June 1915. I have decided to make this appointment, as well as all others which I may have during my term of office to either the Naval or Military Academy by a preliminary competitive examination as I think it the only fair way and gives all Connecticut boys an equal chance.

"The preliminary competitive examination for my next appointment will be held at the United States Federal Building at Hartford, New Haven and Middletown on the morning of October 21st, 1914, at nine o'clock.

"All candidates must be actual residents of the State, of Connecticut for not less than one year at the time of taking the examination, and not under seventeen or over twenty-two years of age at the date of admission to the Academy; and not less than five feet
